

GROWING GOOD KIDS

Excellence in Children's Literature

In the Garden with Dr. Carver
by Susan Grigsby
illustrated by Nicole Tadgell
“Some people come in and out of your life, as quick as a hummingbird darting at a trumpet vine. And some of them, when gone, leave something behind that sticks in your heart or mind. It sticks to you like a little burr on your sock. It wraps around you like the tendrils of a vine.”

Nibbles: A Green Tale by Charlotte Middleton

“Nibbles’ mouth watered at the sight of it. But he knew he must not eat it, or let anyone else eat it, not if it was the last dandelion in town. It might even be the last dandelion in the whole world! He thought hard and decided...”

Water, Weed, and Wait
by Edith Hope Fine and Angela Demos Halpin illustrated by Colleen Madden
“Every week the students gardened. They watered. They weeded. They waited. Bit by bit, all around the garden, peppers and zucchini, snow peas and bean vines, snapdragons and zinnias grew bigger and bigger.”
